i. Source(s)	Short Texts I 61 (15 Pharmuthi year 2 of Nero = 10 April AD 56).
Note	Ed. pr.: Matta 1935
Online Resources	TM 55316
i.a. Source type(s)	Epigraphic source(s) i.b. Document(s) typology & language/script	This is a demotic dedicatory inscription maybe addressed to a god whose name is lost, by a member of the association, and in the name of all the other members of the association.
i.c. Physical format(s)	The inscription is engraved on a bronze bowl (15 cm wide and 15 cm high).
ii. Source(s) provenance	The bowl was found in the grave of a male adult in a cemetery near Abu Simbel (Matta 1935). We do not know if the man buried there had a connexion with the association.

VII. ORGANIZATION

ii. Leadership	The only member (Pꜣ -šr-Wsꜣ) named in the inscription is a mr šn . The mr šn is a title which can be linked to either a temple or an association. In an association, the mr šn is an administrator or the president (De Conical 1972: 154-159). Considering the way the title is mentioned in the inscription, it appears slightly more likely that it refers here to a function within the association, but this remains uncertain.
iii. Members	Referred to as nꜣ rmꜣ .w (n tꜣ) ('the people (of the) association', l. 1).

IX. MEMBERSHIP

ii. Gender	Men

Note	The use of nꜣ (l. 1) to describe this group leaves no doubt that it was a private association.
