VII ORGANIZATION

iv. Officials

The dedication was set up by οἱ πρεσβύτεροι hoi presbyteroi (l. 4), whose names follow the body of the text: the term should indicate the officials of the group. The group also had a ἱερεύς, hiereus (l. 5): his name was Amenneus. I.Alex. Ptol. 24, on the other hand, maintains that the hiereus was the hiereus of Anubis and probably president of the association.

VIII. PROPERTY AND POSSESSIONS

i. Treasury/Funds

The association probably had communal funds as they could pay for the setting up of the present dedication. Unless of course one should think that the officials of the association paid out of their own pockets.

| i. | Number | The officials of the association were seven in number. The entire membership must have included much more people. |
|-----|------------------------------------|---|
| ii. | Gender Note | Men All the names attested are male names. |
| iv. | Status | All the mentioned members have Egyptian names. |
| vi. | Proper names and physical features | ίερεὺς ἀμεννεύς Παχώς Παψώβθης Πετοσῖρις Παᾶπις Παθβοῦς Πεσιέχων |

| iii. | Worship | The association of olyrokopoi set up a dedication to Anubis. |
|------|--------------------------|--|
| | Deities worshipped | Anubis |
| iv. | Honours/Other activities | The fact that the dedication was made on behalf of the Sovereigns shows the loyalty of the group to the Royal House. |

XIII. EVALUATION

i. Private association

Certain

Note

Although a specific term indicating 'association' is absent and a collective name (olyrokopoi) only is recorded, it seems certain that this was a private association on the basis of the internal organisation with officials and a priest.
