Note	As indicated by the fact that some persons are mentioned as archiereis , hiereis , ekdikoi and syndikoi or that their names are followed by abbreviations that seem to indicate professions.
iv. Status	Differing, as indicated by the fact that the persons mentioned in the catalogue are arranged - though with some discrepancies - in two groups. The first group consists of those mentioned with both their personal name and patronymic - among them the archiereis , hiereis , ekdikoi and syndikoi -, the second of those mentioned only with their first name and an abbreviation, usually interpreted as indicating their profession - among them quite probably χαλκεῖς , chalkeis and γναφεῖς , gnapheis .

XII. NOTES

i. Comments	The text preserves the names of thirty persons arranged, as it seems, according to status. Most names are followed by a letter - usually A, B, Γ, A, B, G, or Δ, D, - that seems to indicate the amount of money contributed for some cause; but the cause is not indicated in the text.
iii. Bibliography	Sadowsky, W. (1995), Annals. Journal of History, Classical Culture and Art History . Sofia: 3-4 and 39-41.

XIII. EVALUATION

i. Private association	Discarded
Note	The editors and commentators of this text have usually interpreted it as a list of members of an association, though always with some reservation. Though quite certainly a list of contributors, nothing in the text permits to ascertain the permanent character of this group.
