

Author: GEORGIOS ZACHOS

CAPInv. 435: Philogymnastai

I. LOCATION

i. Geographical area	Central Greece
ii. Region	East Lokris
iii. Site	Opous

II. NAME

i. Full name (original language)	Φιλογγμνασταί (IG IX.1 ² .5 1934, l. 1; IG IX.1 ² .5 1937, l. 1)
ii. Full name (transliterated)	Philogymnastai

III. DATE

i. Date(s)	iii BC - i AD
------------	---------------

IV. NAME AND TERMINOLOGY

ii. Name elements	Other:	Philogymnastai - The individuals who use the athletic facilities and exercise in the gymnasium.
-------------------	--------	--

V. SOURCES

i. Source(s)	IG IX.1 ² .5 1934 (iii BC - i AD) IG IX.1 ² .5 1937 (iii BC - i AD)
Note	See also: IG IX.1 ² .5 1934: IG VII 4165
Online Resources	IG VII 4165
i.a. Source type(s)	Epigraphic source(s)

i.b. Document(s) typology & language/script	Honorary inscriptions, Greek
i.c. Physical format(s)	statue bases
ii. Source(s) provenance	IG IX.1 ² .5 1934: Support of the Holy Table of St. Georgios church in the place-name Palaiochori, near the modern village of Martino. IG IX.1 ² .5 1936: from modern city of Atalanti (ancient Opous). Now in Atalanti Museum.

IX. MEMBERSHIP

ii. Gender	Men
-------------------	-----

X. ACTIVITIES

iv. Honours/Other activities	They honored Epharmoston son of Aristonos and L. Allion Taurus gymnasiarch.
-------------------------------------	---

XI. INTERACTION

i. Local interaction	With local officials (gymnasiarch)
-----------------------------	------------------------------------

XII. NOTES

ii. Poland concordance	Poland N 27 (IG IX.1 ² .5 1934)
iii. Bibliography	Oldfather, W.A. (1915), 'Inscriptions from Locris', AJA 19: 332-3, no. 12.

XIII. EVALUATION

i. Private association	Probable
Note	In correspondence to "aleiphomenoï" and other private groups relating to Gymnasium.
ii. Historical authenticity	Both of the relevant inscriptions render the historical authenticity of this association indisputable.