V. SOURCES

i. Source(s)	TAM V.3 1462 (ii AD)

ii. Gender	Men
Note	The only individually attested member is male.

X. ACTIVITIES

iv. Honours/Other activities	The mystes attested is honoured probably by the city (the first lines are lost).

XI. INTERACTION

i. Local interaction	If the dedication is a decision of the city that probably means that the association has local interaction. The father of the honoured is archiereus and logistes of the sacred council. The cult of Dionysos Kathegemon, an official cult in Pergamon, is probably introduced as such in Thyateira and Philadelphiea, last one colony of the Attalids. Cf TAM V.2 976, 979 from Thyateira and Keil and Premerstein 1911: no. 29 from Philadelphiea for the relation of the cult personal with important offices of the city.
ii. Interaction abroad	This association had surely interaction with the cult of Dionysos in Thyateira and in Pergamon, though there is no explicit evidence. It could even be a branch of the main one in Pergamon, what would explain the term diataxis .
