Author: CLAUDIA ANTONETTI

CAPInv. 1101: hoi technitai

i.	Geographical area	Western Greece with the Ionian Islands
ii.	Region	Corcyra
iii.	Site	Corcyra

i.	Full name (original language)	οί τεχνîται (IG IX.1².4 798, l. 4 et passim)
ii.	Full name (transliterated)	hoi technitai

i. Date(s)	ii BC

ii. Name elements	Professional:	technitai

i.	Source(s)	IG IX.1 ² .4 798 (b. 229 BC)
	Note	Ed.pr.: IG IX.1 694
	Online Resources	IG IX.1 694
i.a.	Source type(s)	Epigraphic source(s) i.b.	Document(s) typology & language/script	IG IX.1 ² .4 798 is a compendious Greek inscription. It consists of: (1) a foundation act (II. 1-38), the donation (dosis) of Aristomenes and Psylla of 120 Corinthian mines to the polis (to be lent to interest) for the remuneration of theatre actors (II. 19-25); (2) a decree (dogma) of the boule of Corcyra about the administration of the money received (II. 39-146). Cf. Pappas 1996 and Migeotte 2010. The first copy of the (lost) inscription (ed. pr.) contains many mistakes: cf. SEG 61: 409.

i.c. Physical format(s) Limestone stele. No details: lost.

iii.	Members	τεχνῖται technitai (IG IX.1².4 798, II. 4, 6, 16, 24, 26-27, 29, 31-32, 35, 41, 80, 83, 88, 90, 91, 108, 130, 133, 136-137) αὐληταί, auletai (IG IX.1².4 798, II. 20, 85) τραγοιδοί, tragoidoi (IG IX.1².4 798, II. 21, 86) κωμοιδοί, komoidoi (IG IX.1².4 798, II. 21, 86) For details, see field VIII.iii: Income, below.
iv.	Officials	ἐργολάβοι, ergolaboi (IG IX.1².4 798, 1. 32)
viii.	Obligations	Payments will not be made if the artists will not travel to Corcyra. See field VIII.iii: Income, below.

iii.	Income	According to the donation (II. 20-24) and the decree (II. 82-89), the artists will be paid for a total of 50 mines: 3 auletai , 3 tragodoi , 3 komodoi . In addition, they will receive allowances accommodation and subsistence (siteresia).
iv.	Endowments

ii. Gender	Men
Note	It is supposed that members were only male.

ii.	Meetings and events	Biennial theatrical agones at the Dionysia in Corcyra (Il. 27, 135).
iii.	Worship	A festival of Dionysos (Dionysia) is founded in Corcyra (II. 16-17). Migeotte 2010: 64 thinks that the polis wanted to revitalize an existing festival.
	Deities worshipped	Dionysos

XI INTERACTION

i. Local interaction Interaction with the officials of the polis: agonothetes (Il. 16, 23, 81, 87, 94); archontes (Il. 22, 80). Cf. Aneziri 2007: 81, n. 63. The male donor, Aristomenes, is the eponymous prytanis of Corcyra and the female donor, Psylla, probably his wife: cf. Migeotte 2010: 63.

ii. Interaction abroad	The technitai came from outside Corcyra. However, their exact origin is unknown.

i.	Comments	Migeotte 2010 estimates that the investment plan voted by the polis (loans of the amount initially donated) were to last five years. The interest rate is supposed to be 16%.
iii.	Bibliography	Aneziri, S. (2007), 'The Organisation of Music Contests in the Hellenistic Period and Artists' Participation', in P. Wilson (ed.), The Greek Theatre and Festivals . Oxford: 67-84. Migeotte, L. (2010), 'La fondation d'Aristoménès et Psylla à Corcyre: dispositions administratives et financières', Studi ellenistici 24: 63-9. Pappas, T.G. (1996), Θεατρικές παραστάσεις στην αρχαία Κέρκυρα. Ίδρυση των Διονυσίων. Athens.

i. Private association	Certain
Note	The activity of the Dionysian technitai elsewhere as a private association is well known.

