i.b. Document(s) typology & language/script	Funerary inscriptions. Greek.
i.c. Physical format(s)	Marble stele with pediment
ii. Source(s) provenance	All from Saittai, except TAM V.1 146, found in Halokome (Üsümüs, territory of Saittai).

VII. ORGANIZATION

viii. Obligations	The association probably had some funerary obligations towards its members, and perhaps towards other members of the community. It is not sure if the deceased are association members or not in these inscriptions.
--------------------------	--

VIII. PROPERTY AND POSSESSIONS

i. Treasury/Funds	The association must have funds in order to bury or erect funerary inscriptions to its members (or other members of the community).
--------------------------	---

IX. MEMBERSHIP

ii. Gender	Men
Note	All possible members attested are men (47 to 62 years old).
iv. Status	One of the persons honoured with a funerary inscription is a priest (TAM V.1 80, l. 4). It is not sure if he is a member of the association or not.

X. ACTIVITIES

iii. Worship	One of the deceased honoured by the guild is a priest, though that doesn't confirm that the guild worshiped the related cult (not identified in the text).
iv. Honours/Other activities	Only funerary activity is attested. On funerary activities of professional associations cf. van Nijf 1997: 38-69.

XI. INTERACTION

i. Local interaction	If the priest honoured in the funerary inscription TAM V.1 80 is not a member of the association, the guild may have some sort of local interaction.
