iii.	Members	Collectively designated as φιλονεανίσκοι, philoneaniskoi (l. 3).

iv. Endowments	The text records the donation of one denarius to be distributed among the philoneaniskoi present at gatherings.

ii.	Gender	Men
	Note	As indicated by the term philoneaniskoi .
iii.	Age	Adults
	Note	For the neoi/neaniskoi as the gymnasium's age division following that of the ephebes , see van Bremen 2009.

ii. Meetings and events	The provision that the donation left by Quintius Hermogenes to the philoneaniskoi must be distributed among the συνερχόμενοι, synerchomenoi (l. 6), points to the existence of gatherings; but the frequency of these gatherings is not recorded in the text.

i. Local interaction	Judging by its name, this group must have been closely related to the city's gymnasium.

iii. Bibliography	Van Bremen, R. (2009), 'Neoi in Hellenistic cities: age class, institution, association?', in R. Fröhlich and P. Hamon (eds.), Groupes et associations dans les cités grecques (IIIe siècle av. JC IIe siècle apr. JC.). Actes de la table ronde de Paris, INHA 19-20 juin 2009 , Genève: 31-58.

i. Private association Note Although the term neaniskoi points to the gymnasium and the city's public life, this could have been a private association.
