Author: GEORGIA MALOUCHOU

CAPInv. 1927: U-AEI-023

i.	Geographical area	Aegean Islands
ii.	Region	Chios
iii.	Site	Volissos village

i. Association with unknown name	U-AEI-023

i. Date(s)	i BC

i.	Source(s)	Forrest 1966: 198-200 no. 3 (i BC).
	Online Resources	McCabe, Chios 227
i.a.	Source type(s)	Epigraphic source(s)
i.b.	Document(s) typology & language/script	List of contributors in Greek for the building and adornment(?) of a temple.
i.c.	Physical format(s)	Stele of local grey limestone.
ii.	Source(s) provenance	Built into the church of the Panagia Chrysokephalos in Plaka , 1 km south of Volissos on the road to Chora (Forrest 1966: 198).

ii. References to buildings/objects	hieron (Forrest 1966: 198-200 no. 3 l. 6)

iii.	Members	Chian women.
iv.	Officials	cult officials: therapneuousa, therapneuon, hierokeryx

ii.	Gender	Women

iii. Worship	Women from Chios contribute for the building and adornement(?) of a temple of an unknown deity.
Deities worshipped	Perhaps Demeter or Helena (Forrest 1966: 200).

iii. Bibliography	Zolotas, G. (1908), 'Χιακῶν καὶ Ἐρυθραϊκῶν ἐπιγραφῶν συναγωγή', Athena 20: 216 no. 14. Forrest, W. G. (1966), 'Some Inscriptions of Chios', ABSA 61: 198-200 no. 3. Graf, F. (1985), Nordionische Kulte, Bibliotheca Helvetica Romana: 70 note 16 and 432 I.Ch. 8. McCabe, D. and Brownson, J. (1986), Chios Inscriptions. Texts and List. The Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton: no. 82.

i. Private association	Possible
Note	The donation of money only by women for the building and adornment (?) of a temple indicates that these women were perhaps members of a cult association. This assumption is further supported by the appearance of the therapneuousa (cf. Forrest 1966: 200).