VII. ORGANIZATION

ii.	Leadership According to Nigdelis' restoration, the association was led by a ἱέρεια, hiereia (priestess) (l. 8).
	Eponymous office	The official is mentioned in the genitive, in a dating formula.
iv.	Officials	A γραμματεύς, grammateus, and an ἐξεταστής, exetastes are also attested (ll. 9-11).
	Eponymous officials	All officials are mentioned in the genitive, in a dating formula.
ix.	Privileges	The association paid for the funerary monument of one of its members, along with the association of Herakles ( $\underline{CAP 756}$ ).

iX. MEMBERSHIP ii. Gender Men Women Note The two officials below the priestess were men, but the association was led by a woman. iv. Status The not very common nomen Titinnius born by the priestess does not allow safe conclusions as to her status. The metronymy of the exetastes may point to the lower strata, but not necessarily so.

i. Local interaction	A member of the association appears to have been simultaneously a member of the association of Herakles ( CAP 756 ).

iii. Bibliography	<ul> <li>(presiding over rites of passage and the coming of age of young men, Herakles, and women, Artemis Akraia) appear to operate jointly in Imperial Macedonia is particularly noteworthy.</li> <li>Nigdelis, P.M. (2006), Επιγραφικά Θεσσαλονίκεια. Συμβολή στην πολιτική και κοινωνική ιστορία της αργαίας Θεσσαλονίκης, Thessaloniki: 152-9 no. 5.</li> </ul>
	The fact that two associations (this and CAPInv. 756 ) worshiping two traditional Macedonian deities On Artemis Akraia, see the comments of Nigdelis 2006: 156-7.
i. Comments	The restoration συνήθεια, synetheia, is not entirely certain; συνήθεις, synetheis is equally possible.
