

CAPInv. 584: techne syropoion

I. LOCATION

i. Geographical area	Thrace
ii. Region	Inland Thrace
iii. Site	Philippopolis

II. NAME

i. Full name (original language)	τέχνη συροποιῶν (IGBulg III.1 916, l. 5)
ii. Full name (transliterated)	techne syropoion

III. DATE

i. Date(s)	Imp.

IV. NAME AND TERMINOLOGY

ii. Name elements	Professional:	συροποιοί, syropoioi . The term συροποιός, syropoios , which seems to have been an hapax (see LSJ, s.v.), is interpreted as deriving from σύρα/συρία, syra/syria , to indicate the manufacturers of a particular kind of garment; according to a gloss of Hesychius, συρία, syria was so called because made by Cappadocian Syrians, see Danov 1979: 264.
iii. Descriptive terms	τέχνη, techne
Note	techne : IGBulg III.1 916, l. 5

V. SOURCES

i. Source(s)	IGBulg III.1 916 (Imp.)

Online Resources	IGBulg III.1 916
i.a. Source type(s)	Epigraphic source(s) i.b. Document(s) typology & language/script	Honorary dedication in Greek fragmentarily preserved.
i.c. Physical format(s)	Lower right side of marble base (0.70 x 0.60 x 0.40)
ii. Source(s) provenance	Philippopolis. Exact date and place of finding not recorded.

VIII. PROPERTY AND POSSESSIONS

i. Treasury/Funds	The expenses for the setting up of this honorary dedication were covered by the association ἐκ τῶν ἰδίων, ek ton idion (l. 6), thus indicating some kind of funding even if on an ad hoc basis.

IX. MEMBERSHIP

iv. Status	There is a possible etymological connection of συροποιοί, syropoioi , and σύρα/συρία, syra/syria , with Syria. Accordingly, Danov 1979: 264 suggested that the συροποιοί, syropoioi , of Philippopolis may have originated from this same region.

XI. INTERACTION

ii. Interaction abroad	The name of the honorand is no longer preserved. But the presence of the governor's name (though not fully preserved) may be interpreted as indicating that the monument was set up in honour of a public figure, e.g. a Roman emperor, like in the case of CAPInv. 583 (IGBulg III.1 908), also from Philippopolis.
