VII. ORGANIZATION

v. Other staff	The abbreviation ΣΑΛΠΙ, SALPI, following a personal name at l. 4, is generally restituted as σαλπι(στής), salpi(stes). No convincing restitution has been advanced for the abbreviation ΓΕΛ, GEL, following the names of two more persons at l.5 and 6; Mihailov correctly pointed out that there are no personal names of Thracian origin formed on the stem Γελ-, Gel.

IX. MEMBERSHIP

i. Number	17 persons named in the preserved part of the text; but originally more, since the upper part is missing.
ii. Gender	Men
Note	The attested names of members are male names.
iv. Status	Most names of Thracian origin, with only few of Greek or Roman (three and one respectively). The lack of patronymics (with two exceptions, possibly to differentiate among persons with the same name, and despite available space at the right side of the stele), can be interpreted as a sign of low social status.

XII. NOTES

i. Comments	For a second catalogue of names from Nicopolis ad Nestum, see IGBulg IV. 2336.

XIII. EVALUATION

i. Private association	Discarded
Note	The only indication that this catalogue of names could refer to members of an association is the term σαλπι(στής), salpi(stes) , restituted in l. 4 (see above, section VII.v). Even if this restitution is accepted, the text offers no signs of this group's durability.
