IX. MEMBERSHIP

ii. Gender	Men
iii. Age	Adults

X. ACTIVITIES

i. Assemblies	An assembly of the association in Sikyon is mentioned, as well as joint assemblies (the Association of Nemea and Isthmos technitai and the Association of Athenian technitai) to Argos and Thebes (F.Delphes III.2 70, ll. 20-22).
ii. Meetings and events	Organization of theatrical, and music contests. Envoys sent to Delphi during Pythia and Soteria.
iii. Worship Deities worshipped	τὰς θυσίας καὶ σπονδὰς, tas thysias kai spondas, sacrifices and libations (F.Delphes III.2 70, l. 45) Apollo, Dionysos
iv. Honours/Other activities	The city of Delphi granted to the members of the association the rights of promanteian (prior consultation of the oracle), proedrian (front seats) and prodikian (prior judgment) in late 4th / early 3rd c. BC. (Syll.³ 460) Aetolians granted to the members of the guild asphaleian and asylia in 235 BC (F.Delphes III.3 218B) They erected the statue of their benefactor P. Cornelius P. f. Lentulus in the sanctuary of Apollo in ca. 128 BC (Syll.³ 704B).

XI. INTERACTION

i. Local interaction	Branches of the association in Thebes and other Boeotian cities (CID IV 70-71; F.Delphes III.2 70, ll. 40, 50). The Theban-Boeotian branches seceded from the main guild and developed individual relations to the Athenian technitai between 118/7 and 112 BC. For other branches see Database.
ii. Interaction abroad	They are acting together with technitai from Ionia and Hellespont in 235 BC (F.Delphes III.3 218B) They enjoyed-along with other technitai-asphaleia, asyilia five days before the beginning of the festival for the Dionysos Kadmeios and five days after the end (CID IV 70, ll. 8-9) An arrangement between the association and the Athenian technitai was made in 138? 134? 128? BC. It provided a partial fusion of the two associations, common fund, sharing of the income, joint meetings in Argos and Thebes (F.Delphes III.2 70, ll. 19-22). The deal was cancelled a few years later and started a dispute that caused the intervention of the Roman praetor of Macedonia in 118/7 BC and was finally resolved by the Roman Senate in 112 BC in favour of the Athenian guild.
