Author: STELLA SKALTSA

CAPInv. GR-9: ta koineia ta en Nisyro

I. LOCATION

i.	Geographical area	Aegean Islands
ii.	Region	Nisyros
iii.	Site	Mandraki

II. GENERAL REFERENCE

i.a.	Full reference (original language)	τὰ κοινεῖα τὰ ἐν Νισύρῳ (IG XII.3 104, l. 12)
i.b.	Full reference (transliterated)	ta koineia ta en Nisyro
ii.	Reference context	Honorary inscription for Gnomagoras son of Dorotheos, Neisyrios, a prominent citizen with an illustrious career; he held military, civic and religious offices. Gnomagoras pleased all the koineia ta en Nisyro.

III. DATE

i.	Date(s)	i (?) AD

IV. TERMINOLOGY

i.	Descriptive terms	κοινεῖα, koineia (l. 12)

V. SOURCES

i.	Source(s)	IG XII.3 104, l. 12 (1st c. AD?)
	Note	IGRR IV 1110 AGRW 246
	Online Resources	IG XII 3 104 AGRW ID 1683
i.a.	Source type(s)	Epigraphic source(s)

ISSN 2446-2500

i.b. Document(s) typology & language/script	Honorary inscription for Gnomagoras son of Dorotheos, Neisyrios, a prominent citizen, who held military, civic and religious offices. The inscription is carved in the statue base that would support Gnomagoras' statue.
i.c. Physical format(s)	Cylindrical statue base (H. 74 cm).
ii. Source(s) provenance	Found in the church of Katholike in the area of Mandraki.

VII. INTERACTION

i. Local interaction	Gnomagoras was honoured by a number of honouring bodies, i.e. boule and private associations (see CAP Inv. 104, CAP Inv. 105, CAP Inv. 106, CAP Inv. 107).

VIII. NOTES

ii. Poland concordance	Poland B 243.

IX. EVALUATION

i. Private associations	Certain
Note	The terminology used (koineia) makes it certain that we have here a reference to private associations. In the Doric Aegean the term koineion stands as a counterpart to the term koinon (e.g. in the testament of Epikteta in Thera, see CAPInv. no. 1645).