XII. NOTES

i. Comments	A.I. Ivanchik argues that the dedication was made to the River God Tanais and that the name of the city was Emporion rather than Tanais (cf. CIRB 1237, l. 14, with Alexander Polyhistor FGrH 273 F 36). But Τανάει Tanaei (SEG 58: 783, l. 6) is not certainly the dative of the deity addressed in the dedication; in this fragmentary context we also could expect [ἔν] Τανάει, [en] Tanaei .
